

GANGMEN FACE TRIAL

Five Jurors Are Secured in Two Hours—Panel Expected to Be Filled Today

New York, Nov. 8.—Five of the 12 lawyers and made most of the requests for the trial of the four men accused of the actual killing of Herman Rosenthal, for the instigation of whose murder Charles Becker stands convicted, and sentenced to execution, were chosen so rapidly this afternoon that it is believed the panel will be completed by noon tomorrow.

The four prisoners, Dago Frank Citro, Whitey Lewis, alias Muller, Lefty Louis Rosenberg and Harry Horowitz, alias Gyp the Blood, whose counsel had elected that they be tried together, were summoned before Justice John W. Goff in extraordinary term of the Supreme court in the middle of the afternoon when another murder case in which the justice had been sitting was concluded.

Dressed faultlessly, clean-shaven and holding their heads high, they walked briskly to their places without heeding the spectators who crowded the courtroom and stared at them.

The work of selecting the jury was conducted expeditiously and notwithstanding that numbers of latecomers were excused or challenged, the following had been accepted when court adjourned:

William H. Montgomery, buyer; Leo Kramer, real estate dealer; Edwin Fisher, carpet designer; Frederick J. Shuck, malt dealer; Charles P. Huntington, architect.

Dago Frank, who was seated next to former Magistrate Charles P. G. Wahl and H. L. Kringel, counsel for the accused men, was the most active of the four during the proceedings. He was in frequent consultation with the

BOY THIEVES APPREHENDED

Will Be Arraigned in Police Court This Afternoon.

The boys who broke into Hotel Wentworth on Sunday last, and stole a quantity of copper and other metal have been apprehended by the local police and will appear in police court this afternoon to answer to the charge of theft.

On Friday afternoon Mr. Campbell, the care-taker of the property, came to this city and identified a portion of the stolen property that had been recovered by the police.

"CUPID" CHILDS DEAD.

Was for Years One of Stars of Cleveland Club.

Baltimore, Nov. 8.—Clarence "Cupid" Childs, a noted old-time ball player, died here yesterday after a lingering illness. He was 46 years old.

Childs began his baseball career in the North Carolina state league in 1883. He joined the Cleveland National league team in 1889, and for years ranked as one of the most consistent batsmen and fielders in the second base position in that league.

GIVEN GOLD CHARM.

Associates Surprise General Agent Gosselin, in Dover.

Dover, Nov. 8.—Allen M. Gosselin, general agent of the Boston & Maine railroad in this city for the past three years, who has been transferred to a similar position in Salem, Mass., was presented by the employees of the station a solid gold Knights of Columbus charm today. The presentation was made by James McDonough, Mr. Gosselin expressed regret at leaving his associates.

Frank D. Butler the well known insurance agent, has purchased the business of the late Lamont Hilton, as well as that of Harry M. Tucker.

JACK JOHNSON GOES TO JAIL

Unable to Furnish Bonds and Judge Refuses a Cash Bail

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, tonight occupied a cell in the county jail, due to his failure to furnish $30,000 bond for his release on a charge of violating the Mann act.

Johnson's attempt to provide bond at the regular session of court failed, but Judge Landis agreed to hold a night session and give the pugilist an opportunity to obtain new bondsmen.

Albert S. Jones who attempted to qualify as one of the pugilist's bondsmen this afternoon was held in $10,000 bail on the charge of perjury after it had been shown that he had scheduled property which under the name of A. Charles Jones, he previously had deeded to his wife. Jones had not found a bondsman when the day session closed and he was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal along with Johnson.

Catherine Dorsey, of whose home the young white girl, Lucille Cameron lived for several weeks, was arrested this afternoon. She had been hiding in a barn for three weeks. She was held under $5,000 bonds as a witness in the Johnson case, and also was remanded to the marshal's custody.

As he left the federal building handcuffed to Deputy Marshal Edward Northrop, after a futile plea not to have his wrists manacled, Johnson seemed greatly dejected but he said nothing.

In his extended fight for bonds Johnson shed tears, pleaded, offered cash bond in almost any amount and employed two attorneys. Three prospective bondsmen failed to qualify, one of them Albert C. Jones was sent to jail after he had failed to obtain a bond of $10,000 for his appearance in court next Monday to answer a charge of contempt, which was lodged against him by the court when he attempted to schedule property said to belong to his wife.

Tony May, another prospective bondsman was ordered out of court because he gave answers to questions which the court considered untruthful.

Both District Attorney Wilkerson and Judge Landis refused to consider a cash bond.

"An unparalleled attempt to swindle this court, by offering unqualified bondsmen has been made," said Judge Landis. "I will not consider a cash bond."

Mr. Wilkerson said that he understood that Johnson intended to leave this country on Nov. 30 if he obtains his release.

The offense with which Johnson is charged is not subject to extradition. Several other charges against Johnson are to be investigated by the grand jury. It is said.

District Attorney Wilkerson said tonight he intended to put Johnson on trial as soon as possible. The case probably will be called next week.

At the jail door, Edward F. Wiegler a newspaper photographer attempted to take a picture of Johnson and the pugilist knocked him down with a heavy cane.

Deputy marshals interfered and Johnson was hurried into the jail. There he was forced to remove all of his clothing which was subjected to a careful search. Johnson was assigned to a cell in an upper tier. Immediately he objected to the location. He was told that he would have to take what was given him in jail.

"I want a dozen candles so I can have more light, a box of cigars, and a case of champagne," Johnson demanded.

"You can't have them," he was told.

"You're not as accommodating as they were in San Francisco," Johnson replied.

"I got everything I wanted there," placidly Johnson asked for a bottle of milk and this was given him.

TO BE STRONGLY FORTIFIED

Secretary Stimson Outlines Plans for the Defense of the Panama Canal.

New York, Nov. 8.—In an article in the current number of the Scientific American, Secretary of War Stimson asserts that not only the absolute right of the United States to fortify the Panama Canal, but the necessity of such defenses as a matter of great national expediency. Secretary Stimson denies that the fortification of the canal would be a violation of the country's obligations to Great Britain under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

As to the necessity for the fortification of the canal for the protection of the United States in time of war, Secretary Stimson is fully convinced. He says:

"It has been earnestly argued that the safety of the canal can be better and more cheaply assured by an agreement between the leading nations, making it a neutral waterway and forbidding it from ever being blockaded or seized in time of war. It is argued that such a course will relieve us from the expense and burden of defending the canal and that at the same time it will accomplish every result which we could accomplish by defending it ourselves.

"This is an entire misconception. It loses sight of the vital difference between an American canal and an international canal. It loses sight of the fact that it is of vital importance to this country, not only that the canal shall be open to our fleet in case of war, but that it shall be closed to the fleet of our enemy. An international canal kept open and defended by agreement between the Powers from its very nature would have to be open to our opponent as well as to ourselves."

Secretary Stimson finally gives an outline of the character of the fortifications, he deems necessary for the proper defense of the canal.

"The defenses of the canal," he says, are divided into two general heads: 1. A seacoast armament with submarine mines at the terminal of the canal for protection against a sea attack and to secure a safe exit for our fleet in the face of a hostile fleet.

2. The construction of field works and a mobile force of troops to protect the locks and assure important utilities against an attack by land.

"The seacoast fortifications will include 16 inch, 44 inch, and 6 inch rifles, and 12 inch mortars. This armament will be of more powerful and effective types than that installed in any other locality in the world. At the Atlantic end of the canal the armament will be located on both sides of Limon Bay. At the Pacific end the greater part of the armament will be located on several small islands—Flamenco, Perico, and Naos, which lie abreast of the terminus. Submarine mines will complete the seacoast armament and will prevent actual entry into the canal and harbors by hostile vessels.

"In addition to these fortifications and the necessary coast artillery and garrison to man the defensive plans provide for the creation of field works and for the maintenance of all lines of the Panama canal zone of a mobile force consisting of three regiments of infantry, at a war strength of nearly 2000 men for each regiment, a squadron of cavalry, and a battalion of field artillery. A portion of the mobile garrison is also on the Isthmus, and the remainder will be sent there as soon as provision is made for its being housed.

STARTING A FREE LIBRARY

"That is what I call Public Spirited Merchandising," remarked a business man who deposited his ballot in the Baby Contest which we are now running. "You people who are stimulating an interest in a home library by offering a Globe-Wernicke Bookcase as a prize are certainly doing something more substantial than the Sunday School superintendent who used to treat us to colored lithographs for learning the Golden Text—and it does not require half the work."

Both men and women are taking a lively interest in this contest, and are constantly coming into this store asking for ballots to be distributed to their families. Yes, the Bookcase we show is actually the one that we are giving away. We know it is a substantial gift, and something unusual, and of far greater value than our customers should expect from a contest of this character. But it is drawing the crowds to our store, and we get our returns from the additional advertising we secure.

Remember that whether you are a customer or not, you are entitled to a vote. Cast it today; it may win you more than your presidential ballot. The contest closes November 15, and all answers must be in the Answer Editor's hands before that date. The prize winner will be announced a week later.

of inspired endeavor, the verities of the world, universally expressed,—that Sousa and his band are incomparable, standing supreme as the leading exponents of instrumental music, and a model for all others. That this is a fact is attested to by the leading critics of every country in the civilized world. Others may claim this distinction, but no other organization has yet proved it. Americans believe in facts, not in talk or elaborate promises, and it is with confidence, and faith in the pride and discrimination of the American public that the announcement is made that Sousa and his band will appear here on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 20, at Portsmouth theatre, with the soloists who made the recent tour of the world, Miss Virginia Hood, soprano; Miss Nicoline Zedler, violinist; and Mr. Herbert L. Clarke, cornetist.

Penn Will Try Hard to Get Back on Football Map by Defeating Michigan

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Pennsylvania will try to find its way back to the football map by defeating Michigan at Franklin field today. For the past few days the coaches have been strengthening the weak points on the eleven and now they believe that it is strong enough to take the Wolver-inos into camp. Ray Mercer, captain of the team and one of the best backs of the football world a year ago, is literally shot to pieces as the saying goes. Constant training for almost a year is beginning to tell. The Quakers have three games left to play with Michigan, Carlisle, and Cornell. They may win one of the three, but the season already has been stamped a failure, almost a disgrace. It is more than likely that Harrington will take Mercer's place at fullback. He has played a consistently good game at right half-back in all the games.

EXETER LETTER

The Tuck high school athletic council conducted a most enjoyable assembly at the Town Hall Friday evening. The floor was in charge of Wilbur L. Rowe of the faculty, and the aids were William H. Sleeper, Fred A. Moore, and manager Harry A. Milbury of the football eleven. The music was furnished by the Columbian orchestra.

Next week will be the final week of the football season and the boys are brushing up for the annual game with Puncard high of Andover which will be played at Andover. It is likely that several of the alumni will be on hand to coach the players and they will be assisted by former captain Kirkpatrick and several of the academy eleven. It is the big game of the season for the high school boys.

The assembly this evening was in the main, to procure funds for the support of athletics at the school. At the November meeting of the first parish club held Friday evening Wilhelmina Keniston of Plymouth gave an interesting recital on "Modern American Ballads." The men were invited and the attendance was large.

Another lady speaker who was to have spoken here next week was Ethel Hobart of the Massachusetts Association of Women Workers, but she has postponed her visit. Next year Jean Hamilton of New York who is now in Europe expects to visit here and organize a girls' club. A ladies organization recently formed here is the Woman's Exchange, which started with twenty two charter members. The adjourned meeting will be held Monday of next week at 4 o'clock in the church vestry.

KITTERY POINT

What Is Happening In the Harbor Town.

The sails and other articles saved from the sunken schooner Mary Sears are being shipped to her home port on the schooner Laura and Marion. In case of abandonment of the vessel by her owner it appears that the government may have to remove her, as she badly obstructs the newly dredged portion of Pepperell's Cove.

After repeated unsuccessful efforts this Autumn the weather man dealt out a full fledged southeaster on Thursday night. The few vessels in the harbor hung on with both anchors down, but the motor boat Alfalfa, belonging to Arthur Hutchins, parted her moorings and went ashore on Hoyt's island. Being lucky enough to land in a comparatively smooth spot she sustained no serious damage. A sail boat owned by Elmer Patch also came ashore during the night, and was not so fortunate as several holes were stove in schooner Dorothy Palmer laid at anchor outside Whalesback, but got under way early Friday morning.

Mrs. Lucy Weeks, Mrs. Jesse Johnson, and Mrs. Charles Brooks were visitors in Dover, N. H., on Saturday.

Services at the Free Baptist church Sunday, Nov. 10, at 2 p. m. Sermon by the pastor. A subject has been handed us by one of the good neighbors. Come and hear the sermon, and tell if you can by the topic, who suggested it. Sunday evening a Union service with special music. The speaker will be Mrs. Lydia Rice of Saco, Me., her subject, "Our Unprotected Children." A collection will be taken in their behalf.

The S V Fancy Work Club was pleasantly entertained on Friday evening by Mrs. Frank Blake.

Shaw Raynes of Portsmouth was a visitor in town on Friday.

Mrs. Charles Perry has returned from the Portsmouth Hospital.

Mrs. Moses P. Randall, Mrs. Fred Libby, and Mrs. Merrill Pinkham, have been recent visitors in Dover, N. H.

The many friends of Rev. Winfred Corbin will be glad to hear that she will not be obliged to give up preaching this winter as was feared would be necessary on account of her health.

Numbers of young people from this part of the town attended the Senior dance at Wentworth Hall, Kittery, on Friday evening.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred I. Trefethen is very ill at the home of his parents.

There was a large gathering at the annual donation party of the Free Baptist church at the parsonage on Thursday evening. Games were enjoyed and a pleasing musical programme furnished by Miss Hattie Mitchell, Miss Edith Churchill, Mrs. James Coleman, and Mark W. Keene.

Miss Nina Moulton will henceforth make her home with Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Merry.

The five masted schooner Margaret Haskell arrived from Baltimore early Saturday morning, and owing to the ebb tide anchored outside Whalesback. The tug Mitchell Davis attempted to tow her into the harbor, but found the job more than she could master. Seeing the difficulty, the tug Scylla went out to her assistance, but the strain of both tugs proved too much for the hawser and it parted, causing the big schooner to again anchor. Later, after several hours struggle she was brought safely inside.

The Make-good Tobacco

Whether you smoke it in a jimmy pipe or as a cigarette.

Take it from any angle, Prince Albert simply measures right up to every idea of what a smoke should be. Pack in your old jimmy and it opens up a new delight in pipe smoking. Roll up a cigarette and you have the finest paper-coated smoke ever compounded. Burns evenly, with none of that die-out-between-whiffs habit. And doesn't burn up in flash like dried-out, chaff-brand tobaccos. P. A. is long burning and it's handy for cigarette smokers because it is easily handled on a windy day.

Now, Mr. Man—you who think you can't smoke a pipe—give P. A. the third degree in YOUR jimmy pipe. You'll find all its promises right in bloom.

Put this on ice: Prince Albert won't bite your tongue. The sting is taken out by the patent process that we spent three years and a fortune to perfect.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS RUSHED TO TURKEY

Turks Closely Followed Are Ready to Enter Capital--European War Possible.

Washington, Nov. 8--Two big armored cruisers, the Tennessee and the Montana, have been given rush orders to proceed to Turkish waters to look after the interest of American citizens.

The vessels are now in reserve at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, the Tennessee being the flagship of Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight. They should be ready to sail within 24 hours, and under ordinary conditions should reach Constantinople about Nov. 25 if they proceed with dispatch.

The consent of the Turkish Government to the passage of the Dardanelles by the American war vessels must be secured as a matter of form, but it is not doubted that this will be readily given.

RUSSIAN ARMY IS READY.

Practically on War Footing--Several Hundred Thousand Time-Expended Men Retained in Service.

ST. PETERSBURGH, Nov. 8--The Russian Government has decided to retain all the time-expended soldiers of the Russian Army in active service with their regiments until next spring. This places the Russian Army practically on a war footing, as the order affects several thousand men whose places would, in the ordinary course have been taken by the same number of recruits who have just been called up.

It is announced that the Government has taken this step as the best means of preventing war, and it is thought that this can only mean that the Government foresees the possibility of complications arising out of the Balkan situation.

The retention of the time-expended men will entail a cost of many millions.

DIRECTLY WITH BALKANS.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 8--The Bulgarian Cabinet maintaining the absolute necessity of any peace negotiations with Turkey being conducted directly with the Balkan Nations, in order to insure the future position of the various States involved and to prevent the danger of further conflict after the war has ceased.

The Government organ Mir expresses surprise that Turkey recognizes her defeat, but yet ignores the victors and continues to seek salvation from the Powers. The newspaper remarks that such meditation in the past has proved costly for Turkey territorially and if persisted in now many cause her Asiatic empire to become a second Egypt.

MASSACRE AT SILIVRI.

Fifteen Turkish Soldiers Killed Many Inhabitants of Village on Sea of Marmora.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 8--Fifteen Turkish soldiers are reported to have massacred many of the inhabitants of the village of Silivri, on the coast of the Sea of Marmora, to the southwest of the Tchaatalla forts. The fleeing soldiers who were in a state of semi-starvation and utterly demoralized, are said to have set fire to all the houses in the village. A disease resembling cholera has broken out among the wounded Turkish soldiers arriving in Constantinople.

RUMOR OF NEGOTIATIONS.

COLOGNE, Ger. Nov. 8--It is reported in Sofia, Bulgaria, that the Porte has proposed to Bulgaria to begin peace negotiations without the mediation of the Powers, according to a dispatch to the Cologne Gazette.

AS MANY CHILDREN AS VOTERS.

The recent school census made this fall gives practically as many school children as there are voters in the city. The total registration of voters is 3100 and the children between the age of five and sixteen, is about 2900 and with the children between four and five and those over 18 still attending school, it brings it up to the required number.

The Mockers.

"I understand you are on the outs with Blinks, Dubbleigh," said Jorrocks. "I am that!" returned Dubbleigh, with fervor. "No more Blinks for me. ## What Have They Got Out of It?

Churchill, Bass, Johnston, Manning, Savacool, Smith, et al., what have they got out of the defeat of the republican party in New Hampshire? What will they ever be able to get out of this disaster to the party of Lincoln, Grant, Harrison and McKinley?

Their chief was bent upon revenge and personal power, simply, solely revenge and ambition, and his followers in New Hampshire can look about them and see the result that has come from this egotism, vanity, lust for revenge and power, can see the State that gave McKinley 35,000 turned over to the democrats, can see a party that a few months ago, at the time of the National convention, could have taken, if Roosevelt had assented, Governor Hadley for the republican presidential candidate and gone to victory with an old-fashioned sweep of things from Maine to California, can see this party bowed in humility with a baker's dozen of electoral votes.

But the party will regain its power, the deserters will come back, the third-termers will never carry their point, the country will sicken of free trade doctrines, New Hampshire will return, the country will again come into its own.

The bull moosers of New Hampshire have had their day. They have gained nothing except the defeat of the republican party, and as temporary wreckers they will be looked upon and remembered. Polling a vote for the head of their ticket that ranked next to the socialists, their prediction of an immense following fell flat. They had enough to partially ruin but they cannot and never will rule.

Two years from now this State will elect a republican governor by the people, and four years from now she will occupy the same National position that she has maintained for decades, giving her electoral vote for a republican candidate for President.—Manchester Mirror.

All Together for Portsmouth.

Portsmouth is one of the best cities in the country to live in and it is on the eve of a business boom and it behooves all of our people to pull together. There is evidence of an effort being made to start a general local "scrap" and with much wasted energy as the only result. Better stop this "hot air" and get busy for the best interests of Portsmouth.

The Work of Reorganizing the Party.

The work of building up the republican party in the State by the elimination of the "Summer resident club" should be rushed. The legislature will no doubt aid in the work. The public will hope to see the heads of every State official that worked against the party fall in the basket.

The New York Times well says: "He did not deserve it." These are the words that are on the lips of multitudes who were opposed to Mr. Taft's election, and they are spoken with earnestness and sincerity. His defeat under any possible conditions in his own party could hardly have been avoided, but his pitiful showing in the electoral college is the result of forces that are not to his discredit—quite the contrary. Chief of these is the vindictive and treacherous enmity of Mr. Roosevelt, and this was aroused by Mr. Taft's endeavors to discharge his public duty in accordance with the dictates of his own judgment. When he refused to consult solely the wishes of the Ex-President he aroused in the mind of that domineering gentleman sentiments of jealousy, wounded vanity and implacable hostility which finally inspired an elaborate organization, every wheel and cog of which was moved toward the one aim of crushing the President.

The New York Mail remarks that intervention is delayed, and meantime the victorious allies are pushing the Turk farther and farther. Before Europe agrees, they may have pushed him out of Europe altogether. Thus it ought to be. Strange that Europe should ever have deemed it desirable to save the Turk from expulsion! Strange that the destroyers of the Greek civilization, the ravagers of temples and churches and libraries; the injectors of nameless shames, diseases and corrupting vices into the blood of Europe; the perpetrators of the awful massacres of Chios, of Smyrna, of Cyprus, Armenia, of Bulgaria; the pillagers of thousands of European villages and the outragers of myriads of European women—strange, indeed, that these monsters should fancy that they have the right to appeal to Europe for protection! The blood of countless thousands of murdered Christians cries out against such a doctrine.

The New York World remarks that the so-called conservative influences are already at work to split the democratic party and balk the work of tariff revision. Pressure has been brought to bear upon Woodrow Wilson not to call Congress in special session to revise the Payne-Aldrich schedules, and pressure has been brought to bear upon the democratic National committee to oppose a special session. This is a counsel of ## Turkish Troops In Transport on the Bosphorus; Professional Letter Writers With the Army.

Photos by American Press Association.

The inferiority of the intelligence of the Turkish soldiery is evidenced by the presence of professional letter writers with the troops. The soldier tells the professional letter writer what he wants to say in his letters, and the professional does the rest. Illiteracy in the Turkish army is the rule and not the exception, as it is in the American army.

infamy to which Mr. Wilson cannot and will not listen, and to which no honest democrat should listen. Mr. Cleveland did not call a special session of Congress to revise the tariff law after his inauguration in 1893. In consequence the democratic party paltered with its pledges, and when the McKinley schedules were finally revised, a year later, the bill was so dishonest that Mr. Cleveland refused to sign it. Plutocracy and procrastination had done their dirty work and betrayed the country.

Current Comment.

The New House.

Any trained politician be he democrat or republican, will say of the new house that the majority is by far too large. It will be unwieldy—hard to manage. For real business ends and satisfactory results a much smaller figure would serve a better lead to carelessness and to the forming of groups within the main groups. They beget factionalism and predilection all its attendant evils and complications.

But, if the democrats suffer from that embarrassment of riches, they will profit by all to be reasonably expected from competent leadership. With Mr. Clark again speaker, and Mr. Underwood again chairman of ways and means, experience in cutting out and directing work should count for much in the whole congressional equation. They are old guides and know the way around.

Bolshare figuring in cabinet gossip, but it would be a misfortune for the democracy should either countenance any such suggestion. Mr. Wilson in forming his cabinet will have a large field to choose from and may find good and competent men in any section of the country. But no name on the roster of the new house deserves to rank with that of Mr. Clark in connection with the speakership, and none ranks with that of Mr. Underwood in connection with the floor leadership. They are first, and the rest nowhere. And we may be certain that the two men will remain where they now are.

A word of congratulation is likewise due the republicans. Their titular and real leader was saved from the wreck. Mr. Mann comes back, and will show himself as alert in the next house as he has shown himself in this. He is a thoroughly competent legislator and enjoys general respect. His following will be small but large enough to call the yeas and nays and thus make the opposition for all its bulk too the mark and go on record name by name. All power to Mr. Mann's elbow so that everything proposed may be developed in its true nature.

Mr. Cannon was defeated. The House and the country will miss him. He is a first class fighting man of all around ability and honest as daylight. He long has been under fire and for a time a cross fire. But he has never quailed, never stooped or crawled to conquer. In triumph or defeat he has always carried himself man fashion, and we shall see no change in him now.—Washington Star.

Postage Stamp Pictures

Some of the "see America first" advocates take exception to the faces of dead nobles on our postage stamps. In their opinion it would be more appropriate to honor the living present, to gaze into the promising future rather than into the dimming past. They do not believe it adds any thing to our reverence for the father of his country simply because we see his profile every time we lick a stamp.

These promoters of development would much prefer that Uncle Sam utilize the space on the stamp to picture the famous scenic spots of the country and thereby draw grist to their mills. They would subordinate sacred memories to worldly possibilities, and transform the face of the postage stamp into a sort of a miniature billboard for private advertising purposes. They want the government to bear the expense too for they have given no intimation of a willingness to bid on the space.

In our opinion Uncle Sam has been the victim of too much graft already. We had better make it a point to keep as many honest faces as we possibly can before us. Hands off the postage stamp!—Pittsburgh Post.

Old Spanish Locomotive

The railroad that runs between Brownsville and West Isabel, twenty two miles, still retains some of its original features, that were established by its Spanish owners. This road was built by a syndicate of Spaniards in 1868 and its equipment all came from Spain.

It was operated by the same method as the railroads of that country. All of its officers and employees were Spaniards, with the exception of the laborers who were Mexicans. Even the books of the company were kept in Spanish. This road occupied for thirty eight years an isolated position relative to any other railroad in the country it being more than 150 miles from its Brownsville terminal to the nearest railroad outlet.

One of the most interesting relics of the old Spanish regime of this line is the peculiar type of locomotive which is still in use doing daily service between Brownsville and West Isabel. This locomotive is of the upright boiler style, the miniature cab being immediately behind it. The road is narrow gauge, but it is planned to convert it into standard width and bring its equipment up to modernness in the very near future.—Indianapolis News.

Not So Bad as This.

Now that the automobile show is at an end the annual horse exhibition is the next large event on the social calendar. There was a time when a horse show was a gown show; and there is no reason to believe that the gowns will not be on exhibition quite as much this year as ever before. The horse, however, is becoming a real curiosity.

There was a time when bobtailed nags and highsteppers were common sights on the boulevards and country roads. These fine animals have practically disappeared, and the child of today must go to the horse show just as he would go to a menagerie, if he would see this unusual sight.

So, after all, the horse show will grow in importance as the automobile becomes commoner and the noble equine scarcer.—St. Louis Times.

HONDURAS OUTBREAK IS ENDED

Death of Noted Revolutionist Brings End About

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Nov. 8.—Gen. Jose Maria Valladares, the noted revolutionist who in years past had caused much trouble to the governments of Honduras and Nicaragua, was killed yesterday by government troops in a skirmish near Ojojona, his native town, twenty-five miles southwest of Tegucigalpa. His death ended the outbreak.

Valladares hated foreigners, especially Americans. In 1910 he came out in open rebellion against the Davila government. German and American war vessels were sent to Amapala to protect the interests of their nations and landed forces. These were not compelled to interfere in the situation, however, for shortly afterwards Valladares surrendered, and was ordered to leave the country. He went to Nicaragua. Valladares next was heard of as a revolutionist when, in March of this year, he crossed the Salvadoran frontier with his forces and captured the town of Apamencia, in Honduras. He was defeated by the government troops March 9, but escaped to the mountains. There he encountered Gen. Juan Ramon Soto, a prominent Honduran general who was ill in bed, and assassinated him and a companion.

Regathering his scattered forces, Valladares continued harassing the government forces until March 27, when at El Horno he was decisively beaten, 100 of his 250 men being killed and sixty captured. Again Valladares managed to keep out of the hands of the government forces.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Headache, Bilious Stomach or Constipated Bowels by Morning

Turn the rheasels out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach, and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach, and clear healthy, liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good, never gripe or sicken.

Mrs. Wallace F. Percival, Wife of Missing Biddeford Druggist, Gets Letter from Fortune Teller.

Biddeford, Me., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Wallace F. Percival, wife of the Main street druggist has received a letter from a fortune teller which contains the information that her husband who has been missing since Sept. 22, is dead and his body is in the woods near Fortunes Rocks. Mrs. Percival has offered a reward of $50 for information regarding her husband. She wishes the woods in the vicinity named by the fortune teller searched systematically. The letter came without solicitation from Mrs. Percival.

CITIZENS' MOVEMENT IS STARTED

A Non-Partisan City Ticket Is Promised.

A meeting of citizens of all political faiths is to be called at an early date according to a report to put a non-partisan city government ticket in the field.

Several well known citizens have joined the movement and a meeting is to be called within a few days. This is not the first time that an effort has been made to take the city affairs out of politics.

FOR MUSEUMS

New York University Anxious to Obtain Copies of the Oldest Paper

Editor of the New Hampshire Gazette.

Portsmouth, N. H.

The department of Journalism at New York University has started a museum. Already a number of old newspapers and magazines have been received from friends in the newspaper game.

The thought has occurred to me have old copies of your paper of 1850s of the Gazette a number who have old copies of your paper or of other New England publications, which they would be willing to donate to the museum. I am writing you in the hopes that there may be such, for we are very anxious to have early copies of the Gazette, which everybody in the newspaper world knows is one of the oldest newspapers in the country.

It is needless to say that all contributions are marked with the names of donors.

If possible, will you not publish this communication in the next issue of your publication?

Praternally yours,

JAMES M. LEE,
Director of the department of Journalism.

HEARING TODAY ON GREENLAND ROAD

Public Service Commission Will Hear
Petition of Boston & Maine to Run to Greenland.

The first legal step towards the Boston and Maine railroad operating the electric road between this city and Greenland, will be held today, when the Public Service Commission will grant a hearing on the petition of the Boston and Maine railroad for right to operate their cars over the tracks of the Citizens Railroad between this city and Greenland.

The hearing will be held at Concord and the railroad will be represented by Attorney John W. Kelley and the witnesses will be Mayor D. W. Badger and Edwin Seybolt of this city and Charles H. Brackett and E. P. Daniels of Greenland.

The result of the hearing will be an order that the public good requires the extension and then the railroad will petition the city for a right of way, and this must take a certain time before it can be acted upon.

The right of way rests with the Mayor and Council of this city and the Selectmen of Greenland.

PRESIDENT TAFT AND CABINET IN SESSION.

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Taft met his cabinet in regular session today for the first time since August, when he started for Beverly on his vacation. With the exception of the secretary of state, Mr. Knox, and the secretary of navy, Mr. Meyer, every member was in his seat. Stenographers did not report cabinet meetings, but the laughter which penetrated the hall and was heard in the corridor of the executive offices indicated that Tuesday's defeat had not brought down to Mr. Taft's official family. Subjects considered at today's meeting were many. From the election to the filling of several vacancies the discussion covered much ground. The message which Mr. Taft expects to write in the next four weeks were taken up, and ideas for them presented by members of the cabinet.

It was understood in Washington today that at present no cabinet member intended to quit office until March 4. Several members let it be known that they expected to retire March 4, even if Mr. Taft were re-elected, and several were known to be anxious to get back to private life

CHARGED WITH CONTEMPT OF COURT.

William Scanlon of Penhallow St. was before Judge Simes, in police court on Friday afternoon charged with contempt of court.

Scanlon was the custodian of Alice Scanlon his niece, who at a session of the Juvenile Court a week ago was taken from him and placed in the care of the Probation officer to find her a proper home.

Pending the making of proper arrangements the child was placed in the care of her uncle until called for by the Probation officer and Scanlon was cautioned that he must not allow the child to leave the city. In defiance of such instructions Scanlon allowed the child to be taken, or sent to Portland, and when the Probation officer the officers and court in no uncertain language.

He was adjudged guilty of contempt and allowed until 2.30 today to either produce the child in court or be committed to jail for an indefinite period. At the same session of court James McVane a one armed victim drunk, claiming his residence in Portland, was sent to the county farm for six months. McVane was arrested for the third time on Thursday forenoon when he was discovered sound asleep in the library of Dr. A. B. Sherburn's residence on Islington street. He had evidently found the front door unlocked and had walked in, and picking out an easy chair settled back and fell asleep. He was discovered by Mrs. Sherburne and Officer West went up and took him out.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

President-Elect Wilson Said to Favor Federal Aid.

The election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency of the United States carries with it encouragement to the advocates of Federal Aid in highway improvement. It insures an administration friendly to the efforts of the American Automobile Association and other bodies who are co-operating with it in the work to re-establish the policy of road building as one of the fixed and definite policies of the National government.

President-elect Wilson in many public addresses has voiced his belief in the wisdom of national improvement of means of communication, and particularly of roads, to which he specifically referred in his address at the American Road Congress at Atlantic city, on that occasion saying among other things:

"A nation is bound together by its

ROOSEVELT GAINING IN MINNESOTA AND CALIFORNIA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.—Returns coming now from the final districts of Minnesota continue to increase the lead attained by Theodore Roosevelt over Woodrow Wilson. He is now 16,441 votes ahead of the Presidential nominee, and Progressive party leaders declare the final count will bring his plurality nearly to 20,000.

Returns from 2353 precincts out of a total of 3963 in Minnesota report the following: Taft 63,712, Wilson 96,867, Roosevelt, 113,003, Roosevelt's lead, 16,141.

In the contest for United States Senator 2167 precincts gave Knute Nelson, Rep., 129,465; Daniel Lawler, Dem., 82,138.

For Governor Eberhart, Rep., in 2373 precincts had 116,601; Ringdal, Dem., 89,756; Collins, 27,673.

Indications are that the Socialists and Prohibitionists have both made gains over their vote of four years ago.

James Monahan, Rep., leads for Congress-at-large. The entire Republican State ticket has been elected. The State Legislature will be as follows: Republicans 93, Democrats 90, Socialist 1, Prohibitionist 1.

CALIFORNIA MOUNTAINEERS.

Their vote Returns Will Decide Whether State Has Gone for Roosevelt or for Wilson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—With 143 precincts out of 4372 still missing the vote for President early today stood; means of communication; and its means of communication create its thought.

"We must more and more engage the Government in providing the general facilities of the common life. There is no breach in that of any of our old understandings of the functions of government. We have never doubted that the Government had the right to supply these facilities which private endeavor has never been expected to supply. Therefore we are not upon a new ground of theory; we are merely upon a new ground of facts.

"The question of highways is one of the few great instrumentalities of our public and our communal life with which the Government is of necessity connected. I see that we must do what we have been backward in doing as compared with other nations.

"I tell you frankly my interest in good roads is not merely an interest in the pleasure of riding in automobiles. It is not merely an interest in the much more important matter of affording farmers of this country and residents in villages means of ready access to such neighboring markets as they need for economic benefit, but it is also the interest in weaving as complicated and elaborate a net of neighborhood and State and National opinion together as it is possible to weave. It is of the most fundamental importance that the United States should think in big pieces, should think together, should think ultimately as a whole, and I feel in my enthusiasm for good roads something of the old opposition that there always has been in me to any kind of sectional feeling.

"I believe that it is the proper function of the Government to see to it that the extension of all the varied modern knowledge, about characteristics of different soils, ought to be so extended, so carried everywhere to the farmer as to build up by the aid of the Government this thing that feeds us, and ought to continue to feed the world, and whenever you speak of that, whenever you increase what the United States

Roosevelt 280,256, Wilson, 280,125; Taft, 2184, Debs 76,488, Chafin, 9293, Roosevelt's plurality 120.

The missing precincts are mostly in the mountains, and are claimed by both Roosevelt and Wilson managers. With 135 precincts missing, Roosevelt is still leading Wilson on the face of the returns by 120. California is still in the doubtful column today. Indications are that whatever the findings, the winner's margin will be so small that an official recount of the entire State probably will be necessary.

WILSON LEADS BY 225.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Returns from approximately three-fourths of the precincts of the State indicate that Wilson carried Wyoming by a plurality of 1000 over Taft.

Incomplete returns from 19 out of 21 counties give Taft, 11,589, Wilson, 12,414; Roosevelt, 6700.

IOWA GOVERNOR DEMOCRAT.

E. G. Dunn of Mason City Defeated George W. Clarke by Plurality Exceeding 4000.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—Returns at noon today, together with corrected totals, indicate positively that E. G. Dunn of Mason City, Democratic candidate for Governor, had defeated his Republican opponent, George W. Clarke, by a plurality exceeding 4000.

States is doing, you must immediately increase the facilities of the United States for handling what it has made after it has made it. You cannot rationally increase the prosperity of this country, without increasing the road facilities of this country."

In view of these expressions, the feeling among Federal Aid advocates is that there should be little delay in obtaining from Congress the adoption of a comprehensive and intelligent plan or National participation in the good roads movement on a more extensive scale than has heretofore been contemplated. The beginning of President Wilson's administration will be signalized by the assembling at Washington on March 6 and 7, 1913, of the second Federal Aid Good Roads Convention under the auspices of the A. A. A. It is believed that this occasion will mark the beginning of a new era in National economical progress.

BOSTON LETTER

Back Bay Scandalized by Hebrew Junk Dealers.

Boston, Nov. 8.—The supremacy of old Boston and New England names in the hands of a crusade being carried on by a number of genealogists, historians and families of the good old colonial stock. The custom, which is increasing in proportions, of immigrants to this country taking such names as Adams, Lowell, Endicott, Lawrence, Eliot, Peabody and several others of the distinctive American group for the purposes of junk dealing, liquor selling or fruit stand business, has become not only a serious sentimental question but a genuine menace from a practical standpoint. Conveyances and genealogists find it increasingly difficult to trace the direct line of families whose names are history itself owing to the numerous cases of the foreign born who, bearing names which are not adapted to commercial life in this country, assume names which they discover to be valuable assets in the community. An incident of this nature was that of the petition of a Hebrew of Russian or Polish extraction to be allowed to take the name of Patrick Grant. It developed that he intended engaging in the liquor business and regarding the name as valuable. It happened that the petition came before Judge Robert Grant, son of Patrick Grant, a member of one of the old and distinguished New England families, and the request was denied.

The bird lovers of America foregathered in Cambridge November 12 to 14 for their annual convention. The American Ornithologists' Union embraces practically all the eminent ornithologists of America as well as hundreds of others, and the congress promises to bring together many controversial birds. The bird men and women came from their travels in various parts of the world with lectures, pictures, lantern slides and many interesting stories of their adventures and their discoveries. Milliners may or may not be there also, to get pointers on their next season's lines of plumage; their general sentiments toward the Audubon society are understood to be unfavorable. Among other features of entertainment for the assembled guests will be a trip to Lancaster to visit the splendid collection of birds owned by John R. Thayer, which has suffered an perceptible diminution even though Mr. Thayer generously donated a large number of rare and valuable species to the new zoo at Franklin park.

The original and "marrying contention" by Professor Ellen Key, the Swedish philosopher, as announced by a Boston magazine, to the effect that the mother instinct, untrained, may work for evil as well as good is undoubtedly true, but one questions its originality. There is indeed a tinge of familiarity in the argument that almost convinces one that the subject has come up before in some obscure quarter or other. An equal amount of space devoted to the subject of grand-mother instinct might throw light on some of the domestic problems of the day to an equally valuable end, and discourage the swaddlings, night walkings, day rockings and feeding-when-cries theories over which the well meaning old ladies and the present day scientists wage their interminable war. Professor Key paints a delightful picture of the millennium "in that future of which I dream, there shall be neither men who are ill-paid and harassed family supporters, nor wives who are unwarded and worn out family slaves. Then mother-care will be a well paid public service for which a thorough preparation is required. Then all home arrangements shall be as perfectly adjusted as they are now the reverse, and all home duties be transformed by new ways of work which shall be lighter, cheaper, quicker. Thus women will actually be "freed" in respect to the burdens of the home from which she may be freed, freed so as to have the time to give an individual upbringing to her children."

Since the election is settled Bostonians turn once more to view with anxiety the results of St. Nicholas' striking plan. Habitues who cannot depend upon being able to get even a sanitary drinking cup on trains and in public waiting rooms are interested to see how the proposition of supplying a cake of soap, two paper towels and a sanitary cardboard comb, all for one cent, is going to work out. These articles, wrapped in a cylindrical cardboard box and sold by means of slot machines operated by the city, seem to constitute a reasonably large cent's worth, although the city proposes to make a bit of profit through the machines taking the place of attendants. The idea ought to work well, it would seem, in a city like Boston, where the lodging accommodations of the Commission and other open air hostilities do not include toilet appliances. Armed with soap, towels and comb, and the frog pond handy by the Water Villa should look second only to the hand-box gentleman from the hotel suite.

Compulsory education for all under 18 years of age is the new campaign started by Boston's recently elected superintendent of schools, Dr. Franklin B. Dyer. Dr. Dyer's object is the conservation of the great army of young workers, two-thirds of whom drop out of the public schools before reaching the age of 14, and thereafter drift about doing the cheapest kind of work until they become of mature age, with the natural result that they are dissatisfied with industrial and social conditions and easily come under the influence of mob rule. His plan is to conduct part time schools which wage earners may attend certain hours of the day, and for which attendance all employers of labor must allow their employees time. Dr. Dyer has gained the support of the mayor, the school

AMERICAN MARINES AGAIN FIGHTING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The United States cruiser Cleveland, which arrived yesterday from Nicaragua, brought details of the fighting in the Central American Republic, in which United States Marines participated after the killing of two of the crew of the Colorado.

The Cleveland arrived at Corinto Sept. 15. A landing party from the cruiser under Lieut. Commander Edward Woods and Lieut. D. F. Gardner, marched with machine guns, 15 miles to Posoltega, and engaged the rebels. Officers of the Cleveland describe the fighting, in which scores of rebels were killed. The landing party then marched to Chendego, which capitulated after a siege of 10 days.

It Would Depend.

She—And if I should marry you, what could I expect?
He (excitedly)—Anything you wish, dear, anything you wish!
She—And would I always get it?
He—Oh, that would depend entirely on your father.—Judge.

$3.50 Recipe Free For Weak Men.

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drapings or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting, restorative, upbuilding, Spot-Touching remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4724 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would write out a prescription like this—on I send it entirely free.

LOCAL GREEKS MAKE APPEAL FOR FUNDS FOR RED CROSS

Money Needed to Help the Society During the Present War

The Greek residents of this city have received a request through the Pan Hellenic union for contributions to the Greek Red Cross society and the Portsmouth branch respectfully solicits the aid of the people of Portsmouth. Mr. John K. Bates, president of the First National bank, has been designated as treasurer of the fund, and all sums of money received by him will be forwarded to the New York branch of the society. The accompanying letter is self explanatory.

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 8, 1912.
Dear Sir or Madam—As you are aware of the hostilities between Greece and Turkey, which up to the present time has brought about a great deal of suffering among the wounded Greek soldiers, not mentioning the loss of human life, it prompts us at this time, in the spirit of true patriotism to our native country, to call upon you for your kind financial assistance to the Greek Red Cross society that they may be able to carry on their noble work of caring for the afflicted and needy during this siege of trouble.

The United States committee of the Greek Red Cross society in New York city, will greatly appreciate your kindness in forwarding at once your subscription, no matter how small it be, to the address given therein.

At a near date a list of every subscription will be published in the Greek newspapers throughout America. Assuring in advance of our heartfelt thanks for an immediate response to your generosity, we remain, very truly yours, Paras Brothers, Peter Zacharias, Arthur Dedes, George Soteropoulos, George Smerson, Samargre Brothers, Stamos Zahos, Roy Varolles, P. Nicholas.

We, the undersigned, heartily approve of the above object and bespeak the liberal aid of our citizens to the plan of raising funds for the Greek Red Cross. Contributions should be sent to the local treasurer, Mr. John K. Bates, president of the First National bank, Portsmouth, N. H., who will forward them to the treasurer of the Greek Red Cross society.

(Signed), Daniel W. Badger, Mayor; Lucius H. Thayer, D.D., John True Davis, Fred S. Towle, M.D., Daniel F. Borthwick, John K. Bates, Rev. Charles LeV. Brine, Alfred O. Booth.
